Love: a magic and ancient word as old as the world, a familiar word which is born in the horizon of every human being in the moment in which he or she is called into existence. A word written in his human fibres as origin and end, as an instrument of peace, as bread and gift, as himself, as others, as God. A word entrusted to history through our history of every day.

Love, a pact which has always had one name alone: humanity. Yes, because love coincides with humanity: love is the air that we breathe, love is the food which is given to us, love is the rest to which we entrust ourselves, love is the bond of union which makes of us a land of encounter. That love with which God has seen in His creation and has given: "It is something very good". God has not taken back the commitment taken when man made of himself a rejection more than a gift, a slap more than a caress, a stone thrown more than a silent tear. He has loved even more with the eyes and the heart of the Son, up to the end. This man who became a burning torch of sin, the Father has redeemed Him, again and solely out of love, in the Fire of the Spirit.

Response to the Psalm:

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Jesus Said: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him.'
