Prayer to Saint Michael

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and the snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

Jesus sent out his disciples on a mission to let people know that 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' Try and recall when you have reached out to another, in word or in deed, to help them realise that they were cherished, perhaps by a word of sympathy or encouragement, or by giving a hand with a difficult task. Think on what it was like for you to experience yourself as a person bringing help and encouragement to another?

When the disciples returned, Jesus warned them not to focus on the thrill of what they had been able to achieve. It was more important that their 'names are written in heaven.' Sometimes we too need reminders that who we are is more important than what we do. Who have been the people who brought this home to you? Have there been experiences that helped you to appreciate this?

Response to the Psalm:

Cry out with joy to God all the earth

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

May the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, because it is for this that you were called together as part of one body.

NEWS & EVENTS

Welcome: If you are a visitor to the parish, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world or simply from another parish.—welcome!

We welcome: Fr Radosław Suchorab, who is here to cover for Fr Kevin, who is away providing chaplaincy cover with the Black Watch Battalion ACF and for other Battalions who have need of assistance. Fr Radek is a familiar face in Rosyth and Inverkeithing, but is a first time visitor to OLOL. He is a priest of the Diocese of Koszalin-Kołobrzeg in Poland.

If anyone would like to take Fr Radek out sightseeing or for lunch/dinner, I am sure that he would greatly appreciate the offer.....

During Fr Kevin’s absence from the parish with his chaplaincy duties, please contact the parish office (info on front page) for pastoral assistance.

Today is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. There will be a second collection for Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It provides practical and spiritual support to seafarers visiting our ports. As it is dependent on voluntary donations, please give generously.

For more information on the work of AoS please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk

Weekday Mass Attendance: is very poor at the moment. Please find time during the week to assist at Holy Mass - particularly if you are retired or on holiday. Perhaps you could come with the intention to pray for a member of your family who no longer comes to Mass, for someone who is sick in the hospital or hospice with no one to pray for them, for the staff and pupils of our schools or for an increase in vocations to the priesthood. There is always something or someone to pray for and the Mass is the best of prayers!

If you travel by car to church why not drive the extra few minutes or so to one of the other churches in our parish—we are one parish and Mass is being offered in YOUR parish!

Night at Pantomime (Alladin) – Wednesday 11th December at 7pm (Alhambra) is being organised by OLOL Women's Group. Price with group discount is £19. Sheets will be put at back of all three churches – please put your name, number of tickets required and give payment to Margaret Rutherford (OLOL) (via clergy in other 2 churches) by 28th July. All welcome.

OLOL SSVP: invite you to a Senior Citizens Summer Event on Wednesday 17th July 12.30 - 4.00pm with Fish & Chips and Entertainment in OLOL’s Hall. There will be a list at the back of OLOL Church for parishioners to add their names if they wish to attend.

Parishioners in OLOL parish should advise an SVDP member if they know of someone who would welcome a visit from the St Vincent de Paul Society.

Pope Francis on the 15th Nov ‘17, stated that the “Mass is the highest form of prayer and not an appropriate moment for small talk.” “At church, Catholics should spend their time in silence before Mass, preparing "to meet with Jesus" instead of engaging in "chitchat," the Pops said during his weekly general audience. "Silence is so important," he said. "Remember what I told you last time: we are not going to a show. Silence prepares us and accompanies us." The pope continued reflecting on the Eucharist as a form of prayer that is "the highest, the most sublime and, at the same time, the most concrete" way of encountering God's love.

"This is the greatest grace: to experience that the Eucharist is the privileged moment to be with Jesus and, through him, with God and with our brothers and sisters," the pope said.
