Like any Christian I am also an "administrator" of the Lord, the rich man of our existence, the only one who possesses goods and riches. What is it that regulates my thoughts daily and, consequently, my daily choices, my actions, my relations? +Life, goods, the gifts which my Father has given me, these infinite riches, which are worth more than any other thing in the world, am I wasting them, am I throwing them away like pearls to the pigs?

+ The unfaithful steward, but wise and shrewd, suddenly changes his life, changes relations, calculations, thoughts. Today is a new day. It is the beginning of a new life, regulated according to the logic of remission, of pardon, of distribution: do I know that true wisdom is hidden in mercy? + "Either you will love one or will love the other..." Whose servant do I want to be? In whose house do I want to live? Together with whom do I want to live my life?

Response to the Psalm:

Praise the Lord, who raises the Poor

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty.

Stewardship Reflection: “No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” (Luke 16:13)

Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money frees us from being a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.
