The historical context of Luke's Gospel always has two dimensions: the time of Jesus in the 30's, when the things described in the text took place, and the time of the communities to whom Luke addresses his Gospel, more than 50 years after the events. When Luke reports the words and actions of Jesus, he is not only thinking of what happened in the 30's, but rather of the life of the communities of the 80's with all their problems and concerns, and he tries to offer them some light and possible solutions (Lk 1:1-4).

Response to the Psalm:

O that today you would listen to his voice! Harden not your hearts.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

The word of the Lord remains for ever: What is this word?

It is the Good News that has been brought to you.

Please remember in your prayers the sick and infirm

Arrangements for weddings (for which six months notice is required) and Baptisms should be made by appointment with one of the clergy.

Sacrament of the Sick / Hospital Visitations

Those who require the Sacrament of the Sick at home should contact the Parish Office to arrange for Fr. Dow to visit. Stewardship Reflection: “For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.” (2 Timothy 1:7)

Many of us compartmentalise our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighbourhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?
