If at this moment, Jesus, passing by and crossing my life, stopped to enter my village, would I be ready to welcome, to accept Him? Would I be happy to let Him come in? Would I invite Him, would I insist, like the disciples of Emmaus? Behold, He is at the door and knocks... Will I get up to open the door to my Beloved? (Song 5: 5)

How is my relationship with Him? Am I able to call Him by name, as the lepers have done, even if from a distance, but with all the strength of their faith? Does the invocation of the name of Jesus always spring from my heart, from my lips? When I am in danger, in suffering, weeping, which exclamation comes spontaneously from me? Could I not try to be more attentive to this aspect, which seems to be secondary, worth little, but which, instead reveals a very strong and profound reality? Why do I not begin to repeat the name of Jesus in my heart, even if only with my lips, like a prayer, or like a hymn? This could be my companion while I go to work, while I walk, while I do this or that...

Response to the Psalm:

The Lord has shown his salvation to the nations.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

For all things give thanks, because this is what God expects you to do in Jesus Christ.

Stewardship Reflection: “Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” (Luke 17:18)

Most of us live “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn’t this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.
