The four verses of the Gospel of this Sunday (Mt 5: 13-16) are found among the eight Beatitudes (Mt 5:1-12) and the explanation of how the Law transmitted by Moses is to be understood (Mt 5:17-19). Then follows the new reading which Jesus makes of the commandments of the Law of God (Mt 5:20-48). Jesus asks us to consider the purpose of the Law which according to Him is contained in the words: "Be perfect as your Heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48). Jesus asks us to imitate God! At the origin of this new teaching of Jesus is found the new experience which He has of God the Father. Observing the Law in this way, we will be salt of the earth and light of the world.

Response to the Psalm:

The good man is a light in the darkness for the upright.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

Landings4Men: Too often men don’t act on what their heart is telling them and their stability disappears in favour of Street Cred. The anchor slips it’s hold and they start to drift into the dangerous waters of a society that sends out mixed messages as to what the role of modern man is to be. The first thing that Catholic men loose is prayer followed by attendance at Mass. They are adrift. When their heart tells them it’s time to go home, they doubt the truth and think of all sorts of excuses, most of all that they are not good enough to come home.

You are wrong Guys! The door is always open and provides all the help you need.

Landings for men is an apostolate of welcome where ordinary Catholic guys welcome ordinary guys home to the Catholic Church.

Stewardship Reflection: “Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.” (Matthew 5:16)
The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people, and it is contagious! Good works encourage more good works. Let your light shine! Be careful to recognize that God is working through you and don’t put yourself above the people you have been called to help.
